NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN:

That every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or Judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district and also; that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city or Commissioners of incorporated district is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time the office or appointment of Judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge, or other officer of such election shall be eligible to be then voted for.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 3, 1849, further provides as follows, to wit:

"That the inspectors and judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before eight o'clock in the morning of the 2d Tuesday of October, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified oter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who has received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an inspector in his place, and in case the person elected Judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters for the township, ward or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at the election, shall elect one of their number to fill such a vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special, or township election during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of given information to the inspectors, and judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote, at any election as aforesaid, than a white freeman of the age of twenty one or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote ten days immediately preceding such election and within two years paid a State or County tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes, aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months; Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

"No person shall be admitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless; First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in a failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof, or Second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he resided in the State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as required by this act, and that he does verily believe, from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and give such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like note in the list of voters kept by them.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall, make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election under this act from holding such election, or use or thereaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, shall block or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice intimidation, threats, force or violence with the design to influence unduely or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and to be imprisoned for any time not less than one or more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

And the Judges of the respective districts aforesaid, are required to meet at Bedford, on the Friday next following the holding of said Election, then and there to perform those things required of them by law.

Given under my hand, at my office in Bedford, this 28th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and the 85th of Independence of the United States.

From Du Courets "Life in the Desert."

Arab Serpent Charmers.

These performers consisted of seven Beni Schiddad Arabs from Ainad a town lying one hundred and three leagues to the east of Mareb. Six of them were playing upon flutes when we came up, but, on being requested by Abd Bekrel Doani to exhibit their serpents to us, they consented with alacrity.

Having made their arrangements, all seven commenced by putting up their hands as if holding books, while they murmured in concert a prayer addressed to Sidner Asser, the patron of snake charmers. This invocation finished, the six musicians took their flutes and began to play, the chief charmer spinning with great velocity, in a kind of wild dance, round the palm leaf basket covered with goat skin, in which the reptiles were kept.

Suddenly the dancer stopped, and plunging his hand into the basket, drew out of it an asp, or buska, which he whirled about, twining and untwining it until it looked like a braid of greenish yellow silk. He then wreathed the serpent round his head, like a turban, dancing all the time, while the reptile remained where he had placed it, appearing to accommodate itself to the movements and will of the dancer.

The asp was then placed upon the ground, from which it reared itself perpendicularly—the position of attack taken by it when its haunts are invaded—waving its body from right to left, in time with the music of the flutes.

Then the dancer, wheeling more and more rapidly, in diminishing circles, again plunged his hand into the basket, and drew from it successively four horned vipers or leefas. These reptiles, livelier and less docile than the asp, kept themselves half coiled, with their heads slanting forward, ready to strike, as they followed, with gleaming eyes, the motions of the charmer, on whom they darted with open jaws, when he came within reach, launching their bodies with wonderful swiftness, while their tails appeared as if fixed to the ground, and then again winding themselves into coils.

The dancer parried with his abbaye these assaults upon his bare legs, the vipers appearing to impregnate the garment with their venom. He then seized one of them behind the head, dancing round and round, and calling in a loud voice upon his patron saint.

Opening the powerful elastic jaws of the reptile with a stick, he showed us its fangs, from which oozed a whitish, oily substance.—Then he held his arm near the snake, which struck him immediately, upon which he redoubled his contortions, as if in an agony of pain, calling all the time upon Sidno Aisser, the reptile still continuing to strike, until he withdrew his arm, and showed us the blood trickling from it.

Replacing the viper on the ground, the charmer now applied his lips to the wound, squeezing it between his teeth, and still keeping up his dance, while the flutes went faster and faster, until at length he stopped from sheer exhaustion.

As I was confident that this man was an arrant juggler, and that the poison had been extracted from the reptile, I asked him to let me handle it.

"Art thou a serpent charmer?" asked the Beni Schiddad—"hast thou a faith implicit in the power of Sidna Aisser?"

"Neither one or the other," replied I.

"Should the serpent strike thee, then thy hour is come," rejoined he. "Bring hither a hen, or some other living animal, and I will prove the truth of my words."

Unfortunately for itself, a wretched cat happened to be at hand. It was brought to the charmer, who caused the viper to strike it, immediately after which poor puss fell into convulsions, which lasted for a few seconds, staggered about for a moment and then fell, stiff and dead, soon after which its nose and eyes assumed a blueish tint.

I need scarcely add that this experiment cured me of any frantic desire to play with the horned viper.

Of these facts I speak from ocular experience, but although I have investigated the matter closely, I have never yet met with any person who could propound a satisfactory theory upon the subject. I have applied to the charmers themselves, and to the people about them, offering money in exchange for their secret, but invariably with the same result.

"If we die not from the bite of the serpents," they would say, with an appearance of imperturable faith, "it is owing to the protection of Sidna Aisser."

Superstition alone can satisfy the Arab for this curious fact of the snake charmers. To me who am not given to the supernatural, it seems that these men must possess a knowledge of certain herbs, the juice of which neutralizes the effects of the venom, and that they hold this remedy in their mouths while sucking the wound, thus obtaining results usually produced by excision and cauterization. This suggestion I give for what it is worth.

'Address yourself to the jury, sir.'

The man made a short pause; but not comprehending what was said to him, continued his narrative. His Honor was then more explicit, and said to him:

'Speak to the jury, sir—the men sitting behind on the benches.'

LINCOLN MEN!

On Tuesday, week, is the election for President. Are you ready for the contest? If not, buckle on your armer, and enter the glorious fight immediately. Abraham Lincoln will be elected beyond the possibility of a doubt. Douglas, Breckinridge, or Bell, have not the ghost of a chance. Let Bedford county do her duty in this contest. We did well at the late election for Governor, but there is not a district in the county in which we cannot do better. Even in Cumberland Valley, where we had more votes, we believe, than ever before, eight of our voters were not out. This must not occur on Tuesday, week. Middle and South Woodberry, St. Clair, Union, East and West Providence, Monroe and several other Townships, you did nobly at the late election, but every one of these districts can do a little better. Will you do it? We know you will. Broad Top and Hopewell, you must do better. You fell behind your mark at the Governor's election. You ought to give at least 50 more votes for Lincoln than you did for Curtin We hope you will do it. In most of the Locofoco districts our friends ought to do a little better, and we believe they will.—Snake Springs, we must not forget. She did nobly, and will do a little better for Lincoln.

Everywhere the Locofoco party is dispirited and broken down, they have no hopes of carrying the election, but they intend to make a desperate stand in Bedford county—they wish to keep the county Locofoco. Don't let them do it. You can carry the county for Lincoln, if you try, Lincoln men. We have the prestige of success which is worth a hundred votes in this county. Friends, see that every voter is out on Tuesday week, old and young. Let our watchword be—Bedford county must give a majority for Honest Abe Lincoln.

CAMP TAYLOR.

There were six Companies attending the military Encampment, at this place, last week, viz:

Bedford Riflemen—Capt. Thos. H. Lyons.

Schellsburg Black Plumed Riflemen—Capt Geo. S. Mullin.

Bloody Run Blues—Capt. Philip Morgret.

Clearville Infantry—Capt. Sam'l Mixell.

Hopewell Riflemen—Capt. J. C. Howman.

Cumberland Valley Blues.—Capt. James Haney.

Field Officers present—Brig. General Lemuel Evans, Col. Thos. W. Horton, Lieut. Col. S. B. Tate, Major Wm. Dibert, Adjutant John A. Gump. Brigade Inspector A. J. Sansom, was also in attendance.

Col. Alex. Compher, 1st aid to the Brigadier General took command of the Regiment, the General being unable on account of having broken a rib a short time before.

The soldiers looked well, and went through with their manœuvers in a soldier like manner. The turn-out was not large, and the encampment continued from Monday until Friday.—During its progress, the town was quite lively, a great many people from the country being present.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—On our first page will be found the list of premiums of the Bedford County Agricultural Society. There is one thing, however, that strikes us as unjust. Persons who keep agricultural implements, &c., for sale, manufactured in the East, brought them to the Fair, and have received a considerable amount in premiums upon them. It was all right to exhibit them there, and wrong for the committees to allow a premium upon them, and worse for these persons to accept the premiums.

There were more votes polled in this Congressional District than in any other Congressional District in the State, with the exception of the 16th. The 17th District polls 22,817, and the 16th polls 23,780.

LOCOFOCO MEETING.

The Locofoco Club of this place met on Saturday night, last, and we have been favored with the following report of the proceedings, by a couple of gentlemen who were there:

Mr. Cessna said: We have been defeated, but if we had done as we should have done, we would not have been defeated; we now see, when it is too late, what we should have seen before. This will teach us a lesson. [Query: What should they have seen before? Why, that the Republicans are stronger than they.]

Wm. P. Schell said: The Democratic party is founded on truth, [Curious, indeed!] and must stand; it will stand. Although it now be trodden under foot, yet it will rise again. [He did not say when, though] The Republican party is founded on nothing at all. It is founded—I can compare it to nothing else but founded on Abolitionism. It is a mere nondescript thing. The Republicans are greedy for the spoils, and are fighting for the different offices; they will eat out the very substance of the party; they will break up the party themselves. [Mr. S. here proceeded to name the different applicants for office, from Attorney General down to Clerk in the Post Office.]—Mr. Schell next charged the Hon. Francis Jordan with saying, in a recent speech, that if blood was was to be shed, let it be shed now, and that he (Jordan) was ready to do his share in shedding blood. This is false, and Mr. Schell very well knows it. Mr. Jordan did say something to this effect: "It must be a curious Union if it will not bear the workings of its own machinery; if it is that easily dissolved, the sooner we know it the better. I want to have it tested, and if it will not stand I would rather see the dissolution take place in my day, than to have it occur with my children after me." [Mr. Schell, you must not try to heap calumny on Mr. Jordan, or you will find to your cost that "Jordan is a hard road to travel."]

Mr. S. also said that there had been fraud used at the election in Middle Woodbury Tp. What do you think of this, voters of Middle Woodbury? Because you have taken a stand for freedom, you are accused of using fraud.

Sam'l H. Tate said: I don't like the tone and temper of the speakers who have preceded me; it sounds like that good old hymn—

"Hark from the tombs a doleful sound,
Mine ears attend the cry."

I for one shall always stand a faithful sentinel on the watchtower of Democracy and proclaim,

"Blow ye the trumpet, blow."

Fellow citizens, if we are beaten, we are not dismayed. But we are not beaten. Haven't we elected Wm. P. Schell in the county by 272? haven't we elected extra fees S. H. Tate by 170 votes, and the balance of the Democratic ticket, except the Commissioner? Yes, gentlemen, in spite of all that Jordan, King, Washabaugh and Over could do, the people would not listen to them, but the people came up to the help of Extra S. H. Tate against the mighty! I don't care what others may do hereafter, I'm a Democrat, and mean to spend all my time and extra fees in advocating the cause of Douglas and Johnson. I will stand on the bulwarks of the good old Democratic ship as long as she has a button on her coat! Who paid for them suppers for the Wide Awakes at the Washington Hotel? Did Samuel Russell? No, sir-ree, bob! Seventy-three thousand dollars were paid at one time to the chairman of the Black Republican State Committee, and a large amount of that money was spent in Bedford county. I didn't see that money paid, but have heard that there was a man who did. Frank Jordan expects to be Secretary of State, and Aleck King President Judge of this District. He'll have a good time getting it. I'll spend my house and lot to defeat him, besides my extra fees. Mr. King belongs to the aristocracy. He gets very polite to mechanics, and laboring men, and that sort of thing, about election times. But when he's at the Bedford Springs, revolving amid the giddy mazes of the dance, does he ever introduce you to his friends? No, sir-ree! Did you ever see him extend two fingers of his gloved hand? The Wide Awakes were out again the other night. Who paid for them capes, and caps and oil? The oil run out, and they couldn't light them. They were like the untrimmed virgins'; and the winds came, and the rains descended, and great was the fall thereof!

People's Meeting.

According to announcement, there was a very large and enthusiastic meeting held in the Court House, on last Friday evening. The Bloody Run Wide Awakes, as well as the Bedford Wide Awakes, were in attendance. They looked well, behaved well, and a better set of fellows cannot be found.

It was announced that Thos. Howard, Esq., and Hon. J. K. Moorhead of Pittsburg, would be present to address the meeting, but from some cause or other they were not present.

Thos. M. Lynch, of Bedford, was chosen President; Wm. Cook of W. Providence, Jacob Evans of Londonderry, and Artemas Bennett of Southampton, Vice Presidents; and Wm. Keeffe of Bedford Township and D. W. Mullin of Harrison, Secretaries.

The meeting was then addressed by John H. Filler and Fr. Jordan, Esq'rs. The greatest enthusiasm and good feeling prevailed, and the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Abraham Lincoln, the next President of the United States.

"DIVIDED WE STAND, UNITED WE FALL."

THE DOUGLAS MAN TO BE CHEATED, AND THE BRECKINRIDGE MAN TO BE CHEATED!

The Locofoco State Committee have withdrawn the straight Douglas electoral ticket, and have fallen back upon the Reading electoral ticket, and there is now no other in the field upon the part of either wing of the party. Upon the Reading electoral ticket, which all Douglas men and all Breckinridge men are called upon to support, are sixteen avowed Breckinridge men, and only eleven Douglas men! The Douglas man is invited to support this ticket, a majority of whom are in favor of the disunion and volunteer candidate!

"'Won't you walk into my parlor?' said the spider to the fly,
'Tis the prettiest little parlor that ever you did spy.'"

And the Breckinridge man, he is to be cheated too; instead of being able to give a whole vote for his candidate, he has to vote for eleven twenty-sevenths of a ticket which is in favor of Douglas, whom he blames with being the cause of the present shattered condition of his party! The ticket is "neither fish, flesh nor fowl," nor even "good red herring." If you vote for it, you don't know for whom you vote.—You don't vote for Douglas, nor you don't vote for Breckinridge, and you vote for both. The only way to remedy this, is to vote for the Lincoln electoral ticket, and then you know for whom you are voting.

The Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch says:

"This is, we take it, a very bitter pill, and although the 'leaders' have settled that the 'rank and file' of the Douglas men shall support the same ticket that the Breckinridge men support, it will require a vast expenditure of sugar to coax them to swallow the dose.

"We cannot imagine any contrivance better calculated to give Pennsylvania to Lincoln.—The Breckinridge men will doubtless support the ticket firmly; they are fully cognizant of their own weakness, and they also have won the game. But on the part of the Douglas men apathy and dissatisfaction must be the result. They do not compromise with the foe; they have surrendered. Instead of going down with their flag flying, they are about to submit to the disgrace of supporting a Presidential candidate whom they cordially hate, and who has been the cause of the disintegration and and probable defeat of the Democratic party. Far better would it have been to keep the straight Douglas ticket in the field, than to succumb to a minority. A peace so patched up cannot last, but will be torn asunder at the first strain, and a hatred most savage will ensue. There are principles dividing the Breckinridgers and Douglas men that are irreconcilable, and which ought not to have been sacrificed for the sake of expediency. After this ill settled, weak and most unwise arrangement who shall endeavor, in view of its disheartening effect, to comput: the majority of Lincoln in Pennsylvania? According to every probability, it will so greatly exceed that of Curtin as to be 'immense.'"

Base Fraud.

The last Gazette makes a great fuss at what it calls a "stupendous and villainous attempt at fraud," in which an attempt is made to cheat Wm. E. Lehman out of his election in the 1st Congressional district in Philadelphia. Now, John M. Butler, the Republican candidate, contends that he is fairly elected, and insists that his majority on a fair count of the votes will exceed the present apparent majority.—But the officers of election in that district are Locofocos. Wm. Byerly, the Return Judge, who is charged with altering the returns, is a Locofoco Breckinridge man, and the whole difficulty is between the Douglas (Lehman is a Douglas man) and Breckinridge men. The Gazette knows this, and yet for political effect it thought to blame the Republicans, who had nothing to do with it. Tell the true story, Gazette. The matter ought to be completely sifted, and if Lehman is elected, he ought to have his seat. We don't want to profit by Locofoco cheatery and quarrels.

DIDN'T PROVE TRUE.—The report that John Cessna, Esq., circulated all over Bedford County, that Foster would carry Philadelphia by from 15,000 to 25,000 majority, and that he would be elected by 15,000 majority. The people will hereafter know what reliance is to be placed on John's stories about politics.—Bad prognosticators, these Locofocos, especially about election times!

DID PROVE TRUE.—The advices received here by our friends, that Philadelphia would not give Foster 3,000 majority—and that Curtin would be elected, by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority. The only thing wrong about it was, that it was 32,000! Whose predictions are to be relied upon, hereafter.

HON. JOHN COVODE.

The election of "Honest John Covode," in the Westmoreland, Armstrong and Indiana District, by over 2000 majority, over Darwin Phelps, a Republican volunteer candidate, is one of the greatest victories and most pleasing incidents of the campaign. "Honest John" is in his proper element in Congress, and ought to be kept there.

We will issue only one more number of our paper between this and the Presidential election. This paper will consequently be the last some of our readers will see before that event. Let us urge upon our voters to all turn-out.—Let no voter stay at home. Let our friends in every township try to do better than for Governor. Then, to the polls, on Tuesday, week, and all will be right.

The Electoral Ticket at the head of our columns is the correct Lincoln ticket.

THE ELEPHANT STILL TRAVELING.

GLORIOUS NEWS!—George W. Nesmith, (anti-Lane Democrat,) and Col. E. D. Baker, Republican, have been elected to the U. S. Senate from Oregon. The former for the long term and the latter for the short term of five years. Farewell, poor old Joe Lane!

ARE YOU ASSESSED?

After to morrow (Saturday) it will be too late to be assessed in time to vote for President. A citizen of this State who has resided in the district ten days and paid a State or County tax within two years, can vote, whether he be assessed or not. Attend to having yourself and neighbors assessed, however.

The Temperance Organization held their regular meeting on Monday evening last. Addresses were delivered by Mr. A. J. Middleton and others. The meeting was large and enthusiastic. Wm. R. King, Esq., was elected President for the next half year, and Mr. Warner Hoerkins Vice President.

A GALLANT RUN.—By referring to the official vote of this Congressional district, it will be seen that Curtin has 410 majority, and Hon. Edward McPherson has 529 majority. McPherson runs ahead of his ticket in the district 119 votes, and Schell "the most popular man in the district" runs behind his ticket 119 votes! Hurra for gallant "Little Neddy!"

The Locofocos of Adams and Franklin lost a good deal of money on the strength of Mr. Schell's statements to them that "he would come to Franklin county with 1000 majority." The same thing occurred in Bedford county. Who ought to make up these losses, William?

We are pleased to announce the success of our friend ALEX. C. MULLIN, Esq., of Cambria County, for the Legislature. He was elected by a majority of between three and four hundred in that heretofore strong Locofoco County. Success to you, Aleck!

Hon. Fr. Jordan is abused and villified in the last Gazette at a round rate. The people, however, pay no attention to the ravings of Beef-Heels. The last paper lets off its bile at a terrific rate. We pity it, since the election.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO.
LOWELL, MASS.

OF ALL.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite, in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore. Read the the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C. June 24, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully.
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Office of the Jeffersonian,
Philippi, Va., Dec. 12, 1858.

Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

DR. WOOD: Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire resteration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz; large, medium and small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in porportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for three dollars per bottle.

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED

BLOOD SEARCHER,

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous formations
Cutaneous Diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes,
Old Stubborn Ulcers,	Scald Head.
Tetter affections,	Rheumatic Disorders,
Dyspepsia,	Costiveness,
Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial Diseases,	General Debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford County, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Blakney, of Emerderton, Armstrong county, Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carrolltown, Cambria county, Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS.

IT is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

MOFFAT'S

Vegetable Life Medicines.

A mild yet effectual medicine, composed of the best material known to medical science, for the cleansing of the alimentary canal and relieving the springs and avenues of life of all morbid obstructions and impurities, must be a public blessing and a domestic and individual protection and safeguard, in proportion as it becomes known. Such a medicine the families of the United States have long had in MOFFAT'S CELEBRATED LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS, and the good they have done is inestimable. They have won their high fame and firmly established character by their virtues alone, without the aid of the usual arts of notority or impudent experiment on the faith of the credulous.

In all general derangments of the digestive and alimentary functions, as well as in a vast variety of acute and chronic diseases, their effects are prompt and complete as to excite astonishment.

In rheumatism, settled pain in the organs and limbs, costiveness, piles, liver complaints, jaundice, nervous and bilious attacks, headaches, fever and ague, eruptive diseases, bad aspect of the complexion, indigestion and flatulency, cholics, affections of the bladder and kidneys, dropsy, asthma and bronchitis, rheumatic colds and sore throats, and indeed in almost every conceivable kind of ill health they are invaluable, and will afford certain, and most generally permanent relief. They require neither confinement nor change of diet—they neither prostrate the strength nor give pain—and a more delightful and effectual medicine cannot be procured either for individuals or families.

The proprietor has received for many years and is continually receiving the most fervent and grateful testimonials of their value. Prepared and sold by DR. WM. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, and also by the agents.
